MISSOULA---

Orientation for students who will attend the University of Montana for the first time Winter Quarter will be Jan. 3-4 on the Missoula campus. Registration for 1978 Winter Quarter classes also will be Jan. 3-4, and classes will begin Jan. 5.

Residence halls at UM will open at 9 a.m. Monday, Jan. 2.

According to Donna Booth, director of orientation and advising at the UM Center for Student Development, faculty advisors will be assigned to new students who have declared majors. Students who have not chosen majors will be advised in the University Center Ballroom at 9 a.m. Jan. 3. All new and transfer students must attend advising meetings.

Booth said advisors will help students with class schedules for Winter Quarter and course planning through the first year. Students who desire further advising may come to Booth's office during the quarter to meet again with faculty advisors.

The schedule for Winter Quarter orientation on Tuesday, Jan. 3, follows:

--7:30 a.m., UM information folders available in the mall of the University Center (UC), and registration forms may be picked up in the UC Ballroom from 7:30 a.m. to noon and 1-4:30 p.m.

--8 a.m., an orientation meeting for all new students in the Montana Rooms, located on the third floor of the UC.

--9 a.m., Advising. Declared majors will find locations listed in the UM information folder; advising for general students will be in the UC Ballroom.

--10 a.m., Music placement test for interested students will be in room 104 of the Music building.

--Noon, Math placement test, for all students planning to take math courses, will be in room 109 of the Math building.
